The Graduate School has provided the Thesis Typing Format Handbook and Template for Thesis Typing to help students in typing their complete thesis, reducing their typing errors, and preparing their thesis in a standardized format. Graduate Student Appeal Policy and Procedure

The purpose of the Grade Appeal Policy is to provide the student with a safeguard against receiving an unfair FINAL grading, while respecting the academic responsibility of the instructor. The procedure of grade appeal submission is as follows:

Step 1: Student who wishes to question about final grading must discuss the issue firstly with the instructor within 5 working days after receiving the grade. In most cases, the discussion between the student and the instructor should suffice and the issue will be concluded. The student should be aware that the only valid basis for grade appealing beyond this first step is to demonstrate that an inappropriate grade was assigned as a result of prejudice, arbitrary consideration or other improper conditions such as mechanical/management error.

Step 2: If the student's concerns remain unresolved after the discussion with the instructor, the student may submit Grade Appeal Review Form to the Program Director within 5 working days after discussion with the instructor. The Program Director will meet within the timeframe with the student, and, if he or she believes that the complaint may have merit, with the instructor. The Program Director will communicate the result of these discussions to the student.

If the issue remains unresolved after Step 2, the student may submit a Grade Appeal Form (CR35) to the Office of the Registrar, Faculty of Medicine to request an ad hoc consideration of the appeal. The form must be filed within 30 working days after grade announcement day in each semester (shown in academic calendar or after the dean's additional grade approval). Any appeal filed after the set time will not be accepted.

Step 3: The ad hoc committee will examine the case and may gather additional information as deemed necessary. If the committee concludes that the grade was assigned in a fair and appropriate manner, the written conclusion will be sent to the student and instructor. In the case that there are compelling reasons for changing the grade, a request to the instructor will be made in writing.

If the conclusion of the committee is not satisfied by the student or instructor, the University legal advisors may be consulted to resolve the matter.

Other Complaints submission

If student has complaint for any other aspects, such as the quality of supervision or feedback, or the treatment from staff member, the complaints can be submitted by filling the Faculty Complaint Form. It is required that background of the complaint as well as the student's contact details are given. Evidence and outcome expectation are optional.

Once the complaint is filed, the Faculty will respond to the issue and inform the complainant as soon as the investigation is completed, normally within three weeks. If the complaint is complex or needs additional arrangement, response to the matter may take longer.

The response to complaint is as follows:

1. Once the complaint is submitted, the Faculty officer will primarily examine the case and allocate it to the relevant work unit. The cases related to graduate programs and activities will be referred to the Division of Graduate Affairs while other complaints will be allocated to Division of Quality Management.
2. The responsible work unit will process the complaint accordingly and inform the student of the result. The time frame varies with the complexity of the case and needed procedure.
3. The student may submit further concern or suggestion regarding the resolution and work performance of the responsible work unit.
4. The work unit concludes the complaint and its resolution and sends the document to the Division of Quality Management for reporting in the annual meeting of the Risk Management Committee.

Learn Thai

MDCU international students can apply for Thai courses, provided by Faculty of Arts, Chulalongkorn University. There are wide range of courses, from beginner to advance levels, to apply.

Check the Center for Thai as a Foreign Language (CTFL) for more information at <http://www.arts.chula.ac.th/CTFL/>

Student Visa

What type of my visa?

- Non-Immigrant ED Visa is the only visa for foreigners temporarily staying in Thailand in educational purposes.
- Tourist Visa (TR) upon arrival: a stay of 60 days will be granted to anyone entering Thailand as a tourist.
- Tourist Visa Exemption (Phor30, ฿.30 or Phor90, ฿.90): entering Thailand for tourist purpose not exceeding 15 days; extension of stay and changing visa type are not allowed.

For students holding any visa other than Non-Immigrant ED-Visa must contact the program officers immediately to change the visa type.

Non-Immigrant ED Visa (Student Visa)

- This visa is for any foreign national who intends to stay in Thailand for the purpose of attending courses both Full-time and elective courses.
- For the first arrival, students will receive a 90-day permit and are required to extend their permission to stay after 90 days of their arrival at the Immigration in person.
- Within 90 days, you are required to register, submit tuition fee and extend your visa. You need a confirmation letter from the University to extend full period of study time.
- Please check the validity of your visa and get it renewed before the expiry date. You are welcome to contact us in order to request an extension letter before going to the Immigration Bureau, immigration Division 1.
- Please keep this matter in mind that all the procedure requires a certain amount of time, so the Faculty highly recommends you to contact us 30 days before the expiry date.

What should I do when my visa is going to expire?

Before your visa expires, please contact your program with your passport and other required documents, to request a letter for an extension of stay. This process can take up to 7 working days or more.

Documents required for visa extension application:

- Application form (TM.7), filled out and signed by the student
- Copy of Passport, first page and the page showing visa expiry date (stamping page)
- 1 passport-size photo (4x6 cm.)
- 1,900 Baht Fee
- Departure card (TM.6)
- Letter of an extension of stay from the University, valid for 45 days after the signed date
- A copy of transcript issued by the Office of the Registrar, CU
- A study hour report from the Faculty, signed by the Dean
- Additional criminal record verification and accommodation contact (if required by the Immigration Bureau)

Note: A fine of 500-Baht per day will be applied if a visa extension does not meet the expiry date deadline.

Ultimately, students are responsible for ensuring that they renew their visa before the expiration date. Overstaying without a valid visa is a serious issue that will result in daily fines and possible deportation. This lapse will be stamped on the students' passport and become part of their record at the Immigration Bureau. If the overstay exceeds 40 days, the student must leave the country.

The required documents will be submitted in person at:

Immigration Division 1, Immigration Bureau

Chalermprakit Government Complex B Building, 120 Moo 3, Chaengwattana Rd., Soi 7, Toongsonghong, Laksi, Bangkok. 10210

Website: https://bangkok.immigration.go.th/en/home_en/

Call: 1178 or 02-141-9889

The 90-day Notification

The 90-day notification is the mandatory requirement for any foreigners, regardless on your visa type, to contact Immigration Bureau every 90 days in order to update their current address. It is not a visa extension. It is free of charge but you are required to show up in person at the Bureau. It is recommended for students to notify the immigration 7 days before the date end up or to notify them as the date stated on the appointment. If you miss the date, you will be fined 2,000 Baht per day and risking visa cancellation if it is happening more than once or twice.

Can I leave Thailand?

Students holding a one-year extension visa who plan to leave Thailand need to apply for Re-entry Permit before their departure, the permission can be single or multiple re-entry. The Re-entry Permit can be obtained at the local Immigration Bureau.

Documents required for Re-entry Permit Application:

- Application form (TM.8), filled out and signed by the student
- Copy of Passport: the first page (with your information), the page showing the most recent entry visa page, and the page showing “Kingdom of Thailand label (stamping page).
- 1 passport-size photo (4x6 cm.)
- 1,000 Baht for a single entry or 3,800 Baht for a multiple entry permit

Note: If you forget to lodge the Re-entry Permit, your student visa will be invalid and you will have to go through the whole process of getting the proper student visa at a Thai Embassy or Consulate outside Thailand.

Thai Culture

Some little things that you should know while living in Thailand.

- Public displays of affection between men and women may be frowned upon.
- Don't be surprised if you are addressed by your first name - as for instance, Mr. Bob or Miss Mary - instead of by your surname. This is because Thais refer to one another in this manner, usually preceded by the honorific Khun instead of Mr., Mrs. or Miss.
- Avoid touching anyone's head especially that of an elderly person.
- In Thailand, the foot is the lowest part of the body. Do not point at people or things with your foot. When sitting, do not place your feet on a table.
- Remove your shoes when entering a house or certain building on the temple grounds.
- Avoid pointing your finger at other people.

Medical services

- Bangkok has several large hospitals with foreign and/or English speaking doctors and medical staff. If traveling outside Bangkok, you may find it difficult to get an English-speaking doctor unless you are in a large city.
- In general, the tap water is clean enough for daily use, but don't drink it unless you can be sure that it has been boiled. Drinking water can be bought at any shop or street stall that sells refreshments.

Chulalongkorn University Graduate Studies Regulation 2018

* The content in this student handbook is only some parts of the full regulation.

FACULTY OF MEDICINE
Chulalongkorn University

Section 2

Academic Administration

Part 1 Academic System

Number 9. The Graduate School operates a credit system. The academic year is divided into two semesters, or three terms or any other period divisions as may be prescribed by the University Council.

Number 10. Academic year is divided into two types, as follows:

- (1) The bi-semester academic year is divided into two semesters: first and second semesters. There may also be an additional summer session after the conclusion of the second semester.
- (2) The tri-semester academic year is divided into three semesters: first, second and third semesters.

For the bi-semester academic year, each semester consists of no less than 15 weeks, while the summer semester duration must not be less than 6 weeks but not greater than 8 weeks. The number of class periods for each course subject in the summer semester must be equal to those of a regular semester.

For the tri-semester academic year, each semester consists of no less than 12 weeks, and each course must be held as the criteria stated on Number 11 as the class period for 1 semester must be equal as the bi-semester system and 1 credit of tri-semester system is equal to 1 credit of bi-semester system.

Number 11. Semester hour units representing the volume of academic work shall be referred to as "Credits". The number of credits granted for each course subject is determined as follows:

- (1) Theory-based courses entailing at least 15 hours of lectures or seminars over one full semester shall yield one credit.
- (2) Laboratory-based courses entailing at least 30 hours of training or laboratory sessions over one full semester shall yield one credit.

- (3) Training or fieldwork practice entailing at least 45 hours over one full semester shall yield 1 credit.
- (4) Independent study or thesis/dissertation work entailing at least 45 hours of research over one full semester shall yield 1 credit.

In the case of a different academic system, the criteria for and details about the calculation of credits and their equivalent values in the bi-semester system shall be spelled out in the documents of the Program concerned.

Number 12. The subjects specified in the curriculum as courses that students must study and pass examinations in order to receive an “S” grade but do not merit a grade to be accumulated for the overall credit requirements in the program shall be referred to as “Non-Credit Courses”.

Students who receive a “U” grade in a non-credit course, as explained above, must re-register for that course.

Number 13. “Credits studied” refers to the number of credits for the courses students have registered for and are divided into three types, as follows:

- (1) “Aggregated Credits per Semester” means the total number of credits for every subject taken and students receive the letter grades of A, B+, B, C+, C, D+, D and F in a particular semester.
- (2) “Overall Cumulative Credits” mean the total number of credits for all subjects which students have gained every time they receive grades of A, B+, B, C+, C, D+, D and F at the conclusion of a semester. Acceptance of credits from re-registration for any one self-same subject shall be subsumed under this regulation.
- (3) “Credits Completed” means the number of credits for subjects students shall have passed at grades A, B+, B, C+, C, or S. In cases where students have passed any course more than once or where they have passed any additional course specified as equivalent to the course already completed, only the number of credits gained at the first pass shall be awarded. Notwithstanding this regulation, students may, with the permission of the Graduate Studies Committee, re-register and have the credits for both subjects in question validated, provided that the additional subject’s content is significantly different from that of the previous one.

Part 2 Period of Study

Number 14. “Period of Study” means a total period of time which students spend on studying and producing academic works, as required by the curriculum, namely taking courses, conducting research, writing up a thesis or dissertation, as well as having his/her thesis published.

The Period of Study, as defined above, shall commence from the date of first registration for graduate study in the program and finish when students pass the examinations and complete all of the Program’s requirements.

Number 15. The period of study for a Graduate Diploma and an Advanced Graduate Diploma shall not exceed that determined by the Policy Board.

Number 16. The maximum period of study for a master’s degree shall be 4 academic years.

Number 17. The maximum period of study for a doctoral degree shall be

- (1) 6 academic years with regard to candidates who hold a master’s degree,
- (2) 8 academic years with regard to candidates who hold a bachelor’s degree.

Number 18. The period of study for the foregoing programs with regard to regular part-time students shall not be 1.5 times longer than the duration specified on Number 15, Number 16, or Number 17 considered on a case-by-case basis.

Part 3 Language of Instruction

Number 19. Courses are conducted in English.

Students must write their theses/dissertations or independent study in English.

The regulation about language shall be announced before an application to the Program takes place.
